CITY COUNCIL SELECTS MANNY MARTINEZ TO SERVE AS VICE MAYOR

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Manny Martinez is the new vice mayor for the city of Glendale.

The City Council voted to select Martinez during its evening meeting Tuesday (January 23).

As Glendale's new vice mayor, Martinez will perform the duties of the mayor during the mayor's absence. He begins his new duties immediately.

The vice mayor seat recently became vacant when longtime Vice Mayor Tom Eggleston retired from the City Council earlier this year.

Martinez, who represents the Cholla District in the northern part of the city, has been a council member for the past 10 years.
